A Prayer for the Ignatian Year

“Five hundred years stretch wide and coil in tight. All at once, drawing us from our modern lives back to a battlefield, a cannonball flying, reminding us that we are pilgrims before we are anything else. Wherever we find ourselves on this earth. Like us, breathed into being by divine love. May we never make the mistake of believing that we are far from you. In this Ignatian year we are called to see all things new in Christ Even time. Even space. Even ourselves. Amen.” Cameron Bellm <https://www.jesuits.org/stories/a-prayer-for-the-ignatian-year/> <https://www.cameronbellm.com/>
