CWL News

After a summer break, the fall CWL meeting will be held on September 16th at 6:30 p.m. in the Community Room. We look forward to seeing all of you again. We invite current and future members to increase their faith and join us in both our service and social justice experiences. Moreover, by looking at the Regional, Provincial and National CWL websites, you will see how active the CWL is in both government and legal matters; such as the promoting and supporting of resolutions to improve our communities. Furthermore, members also develop their meeting, communication, bookkeeping skills, hospitality, leadership skills, and presentation skills. We need you and your diverse talents in our 2025 executive elections.

The year-end CWL survey can be handed in at the office or placed in our CWL envelope by the end of August. Members are invited to suggest activities as well as guest speakers. Executive members will look at the surveys in late summer to help with our planning for the fall when our meetings resume on September 16th at 6:30 p.m. in the Community Room.

For the months of July and August, we wish you a restful and enjoyable summer break. See you in September.

Exploring the Enneagram- Accessing the Divine Within

Sandy Halloran, who has been studying and teaching the Enneagram for many years, is offering a 6-hour course over three nights at Loyola House. The Enneagram is tool for self-development and transformation and marries psychology and spirituality while increasing self-awareness, deepening our connection to ourselves and God. During this workshop, we'll discover how the Enneagram can:

- Help us identify patterns that keep us stuck and from being our best selves.
- Hone in on our gifts and strengths, so we can gain more clarity and direction.
- Point us in the direction of living our spiritual life authentically.
- Have compassion for ourselves as we understand what lies beneath our reactivity and triggers.
- Identify common areas of conflict and how our types can best manage and reduce conflict.

This course is for individuals who wish to live their lives more congruently with their spiritual values and deepen their self-awareness. Questions? Email sandra.halloran@gmail.com.

Workshop runs Sept 10th, 17th & 24th. Cost is $75.
